BAKSAM OF LIVER

THE PRESIDENT'S LEVEE on Tuesday evening was a most brilliant and gay assemblage of the fashionable denizens of the Metropolis. His excellency the President appeared in excellent health and spirits, and seemed to partake with much zest in the general hilarity and abandon of all present. We noticed among those present the gallant veteran, General Gaines, and his accomplished lady, Viscount Bertrand, several foreign diplomats, and a large number of our army and navy officers in full uniform. Terpsichore again invaded the East Room, and the giddy waltz and stately cotillon were in full tide when we left the mansion.

CONGRESSIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY .- An adjourned meeting of this society will be held in the Hall of the House of Representatives this evening. Excellent addresses may be expected. At the close of its proceedings, the illuminated temperance figures of Messrs. Burton and Mc-Knight will be exhibited in the Rotundo.

CRIMINAL COURT .- A female slave, named Jane Hewitt, was put upon her trial in this court on yesterday, charged with an attempt to poison the family of M. Jeffers, Esq. The crime is punisuable with death. The prisoner is defended by Mr. James I. Dickins. The examination of the witnesses in this case had not been concluded when the court adjourned.

An iron wire bridge, sixty feet long, has been constructed across the Miami canal, at Race street, in Cincinnati, at a cost of $1,650. This is the first wire bridge erected west of the mountains. Competent judges think it will bear, with perfect safety, a weight of 150 tons.

Why could not iron wire suspension bridges be constructed over our canal, instead of the common wooden bridges? They have been fully tested, and as to durability, are a hundred per cent cheaper; and it appears from the above, their first cost is not greater than wooden bridges. As a matter of retrenchment, as well as safety to passengers, we think this subject deserves attention.

Mr. Editor: You will confer a favor upon a large number of your fellow-citizens, residents of the Second Ward, by publishing the subjoined ticket of delegates to the proposed convention in relation to the city charter. Our representatives in the councils of the city have recommended certain amendments to the existing charter: public sentiment is now almost unanimously in favor of an expression of opinion upon those amendments, and such other as may be proposed by representatives "fresh from the people.." Neither of the gentlemen whose names are upon the ticket have been consulted, but it is hoped and expected that they will narmit their names to be expected that they will permit their names to be MANY VOTERS.

TWENTY EIGHTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1844. SENATE.

Mr. BAYARD presented a petition from Wm. T. McConnel, praying Congress to test his plan for war steamers.

Mr. PEARCE presented a memorial from citizens of Baltimore, asking Congress to remodel the consular establishment of the United States;

Mr. BARROW submitted a resolution calling on the Secretary of War to furnish a copy of the report of B. F. Butler, agent of the Cherokees, addressed to T. H. Crawford.

MASSACHUSETTS RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. BAGBY presented joint resolutions of the Alabama Legislature on the subject of the amendment of the Constitution proposed by the Massachusetts Legislature. The resolutions of Alabama import that in no event will that State countenance the proposition, and that she views all such attempts as evidence of bad faith on the part of a sister State. Mr. B. took great pleasure in presenting these resolutions, not only as ac-cording with his own views, but because they afforded another proof to the many his State had already given of her devotion to the Constitution

In looking over a report of his remarks made when the Massachusetts resolutions were presented, he found an expression which might be construed as imputing treason to the Senator from Massachusetts; he desired to take this oc-casion to recall that remark, and he added the expression of his sincere belief, from the brief intercourse he had held with the honorable Senator from Massachusetts, that he was actuated on all occasions by the purest patriotism. After moving that the Alabama resolutions should be printed, Mr. B. moved to take the Massachusetts resolutions from the table, that a similar motion might be made on them.

Mr. BATES had felt that injustice was done to his State in the discrimination which had been made, but had rested satisfied that time would set it right. He thanked the Senator from Alabama for his expression of kind feeling, but declined a second time to submit the motion to print.

A pause ensued, after which Mr. BAGBY rose again, and said, that although he could not himself vote for the printing of the Massachusetts resolution, he would submit the motion that ney be printed.

Mr. HAYWOOD raised a question of order,

but was overruled.

Mr. KING thought his colleague might have been satisfied with having withdrawn any offen-sive remarks he had made. The question of printing these resolutions was of graver import than justice or injustice to Massachusetts. He moved to lay the motion to print on the table.

Mr. BAGBY had reflected much upon this subect, and had determined in resolutions of his own, to bring the whole question before the Senate, sometime during this session.

Mr. BERRIEN suggested that the Senate was thin now, and was full when the action was had Massachusetts resolutions-he thought the matter had better be postponed.

Mr. ARCHER had received from the Virginia Legislature, resolutions of similar import with those of the Senator from Alabama, and did not present them at this time, only because his col-league was not in his seat; he, too, wished the subject postponed.

The motion to print was then laid on the table.
On motion of Mr. BARROW, the Senate took up Senate bill No. 20, to adjust land claims in the States of Louisiana, Mississippi, and Arkansas The rest of the sitting was occupied with this bill.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

RULES AND ORDERS.

The first business in order was the motion for reconsideration made by Mr. Barringer, of N. C. in reference to the 40th and 41st rule of Mr. Dromgoole's code, which exclude from the jour-nal the protests of minorities.

Mr. BARRINGER asked if the motion was debateable.

The SPEAKER said it was not.

Mr. DROMGOOLE argued that the motion was not in order, but no appeal was made from the Speaker's decision.

nd navs motion to reconsider, and the proposition was defeated by a vote of 115 to 55.

Then came the question of the adoption of the rules as amended, and the yeas and nays were

The SPEAKER was asked what would be the effect of not adopting the report of Mr. Drom-goole, and replied that the old rules would be in

Mr. BIDLACK, of Pa., inquired into the effect of laying the motion on the table.

The SPEAKER said the old rules would still be enforced, because the House, if it thought proper, could take the rules, as proposed by Mr.

D., from the table.

Mr. BIDLACK then moved to lay the whole subject on the table. The yeas and nays were ordered.

The process of calling proceeded very slowly and a good deal of caucussing was going on during the same. The names having been all called, the vote was found, before it was announced, to be very close.

Several who had voted in the negative now changed their votes. Messrs. Duncan, Davis, ot Ia., and Yost, who had voted no, now voted ay. The vote was announced-for laying on the table 88, against it 87. A motion to reconsider was made.

Mr. CLINGMAN moved a call of the House A motion to lay this last motion on the table was decided not to be in order. Upon the question, "Shall there be a call of the House?" the year and nays were ordered, and were ayes 81, noes 101.

Mr. WELLER then moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table; the yeas and nays were called, and the motion prevailed, ayes 89,

This ended the matter, and probably the strug-gle will not be renewed this session. The old rules are the new rules, and under them this nullifying House must proceed to violate all rules.

SENATE BILLS.

The various bills which yesterday passed the Senate, were read a second time, and referred.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES. Mr. VANCE moved that the rules be suspended in order to receive such roports from the stand-Mr. HOPKINS, of Va., was called to the Most of the reports made were of a private interest only.

Mr. DROMGOOLE gave notice that, during the absence of the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, he should call up the vari-

AWFUL ACCIDENT!

THE SECRETARIES OF STATE AND NAVY KILLED.

About seven o'clock last evening intelligence reached this city that an appalling and heartrending accident had occurred on board the steamer Princeton, by the bursting of one of her large guns, by which Mr. UPSHUR, Secretary of State, Mr. GILMER, Secretary of the Navy, Com. KENNON, Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repairs, VIRGIL MAXCY, Esq., and Col. GARDNER, of New York, were killed, and Senator BENTON and Capt. STOCKTON severely, and it is said dangerously, wounded. We learn that several others are killed, and many mortally wounded, whose names were not known when our informant left the vessel.

The President of the United States, the Mayor of Washington, and several Senators and members of the House, as well as many citizens, were on board, including a large number of ladies, and the scene is described as truly heart-rending.

We understand that the accident occurred amidst the greatest hilarity and enjoyment; and truly is this an instance of the correctness of the sentiment-" in the midst of life we are in death."

The gloom that now pervades our city is deep and melancholy in the extreme. Many rumors are affoat, of course, in reference to the event, but enough is already ascertained to spread a gloom throughout the land, wherever a heart to sympathise and condole can be found.

THIRD WARD MEETING.

The meeting of the citizens of the Third Ward called for last evening, took place in the Aldermen's room, City Hall, according to notice, and was called to order by J. Y. BRYANT, Esq., and organized by the appointment of JACOB GIDEON, as Chairman, and JOHN T. TOWERS, as Secretary

The Chairman stated that it had been suggested previous to the organization of the meeting that in consequence of the gloom now pervading our city caused by the melancholy accident on board the Princeton, that the meeting adjourn, without transacting any business.

STEPHEN P. FRANKLIN, Esq., then offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this meeting has heard with heartfelt sorrow of the accident on board the Princeton, and that, in consequeuce thereof, the Mayor be requested to postpone the election contemplated to be held on Friday next to some future day, and that this meeting now adjourn; which was unanimously adopted.

And the meeting adjourned accordingly.
